

Welcome

The National Military Intelligence Association (NMIA), established in 1974, is the nation's sole joint military intelligence professional association. Our prime goal is to support the professional development of military intelligence practitioners and help improve the effectiveness of joint military intelligence operations in support of our armed forces and homeland security efforts.

- We provide multiple forums to foster a productive exchange of information and views among military intelligence professionals, their partners and supporters, and those they serve.
- We support military intelligence practitioners and organizations in a variety of ways, focusing particularly on professional development and appropriate recognition of outstanding performers.

We strive to increase public understanding of the valuable contributions military intelligence operations make to national security and homeland defense.

The Ohio Chapter of the National Military Intelligence Association (NMIA) is located on Wright-Patterson Air Force Base (WPAFB) near Dayton, Ohio. This professional organization supports the Intelligence Community (IC) at WPAFB to promote opportunities for intelligence careers and job growth. Many jobs and economic development will be a result of this local Chapter. We thank Ohio, WPAFB and the National NMIA association for their firm support in this effort.

Our Mission

Our mission is to foster a productive exchange of information and views among military intelligence professionals, their partners and those they serve. We support the professional development of military intelligence practitioners, help recognize outstanding performers and strive to increase public understanding of the valuable contributions military intelligence operations make to national security and homeland defense.

We conduct two symposia each year and co-sponsor a number of others, publish thrice-weekly and semi-monthly electronic news summaries and publish the American Intelligence Journal twice a year. We host an awards banquet each May to recognize and honor those who have provided truly exceptional military intelligence support to help ensure our national security, and we present NMIA awards to distinguished graduates of U.S. military colleges and intelligence organizations.

Attendees

Our Career Fair will be held on May 13, 2009 at the Hope Hotel and Conference Center located just outside the gates of Area A, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base off of State Route 444. The Ohio Chapter of the National Military Intelligence Association invites you to attend this prestigious event. The doors will be open from 9:00 AM until 4:00 PM for the opportunity to meet with the Government and corporations serving our nation.

Business attire is strongly suggested and please bring multiple copies of your resume to distribute. You may also preregister and upload your resume prior to the event at our website: www.nmiaohio.org.

The National Military Intelligence Association is proud to bring this opportunity to our community. We hope you will stop by our booth while at the event to find out more on how membership in the chapter can help you in your professional career and support our nation.
